Dear Mrs. McLaughlin,

Thanks for your letter of the 23rd and the enclosed leaflet.

I have not read "Room 3603" by Hyde, but I think I heard of it several years ago.

Dulles was not the first head of the CIA.

They are one and the same Fensterwald.

I agree with your opinion in the Hiss case. His conviction, by the way, was not for espionage but was for perjury.

It is kind of you to offer your research, but my present time requirements leave no time for it. I na deeply engaged in attempting towrite books I have already researched.

Most of my work has been on the JFK assassination. It remains at the center of my interest, if I do find The Watergate fascinating and indicative of the most serious danger our society has faced.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
